

Handwritten musical notation consisting of ten staves of notes and rests.

} hoppeta { toppuni

Handwritten notes in a cursive script, possibly a shorthand or a specific dialect. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The characters are highly stylized and interconnected, with many loops and flourishes. Some characters resemble the letter 'z' or 'n' but are more complex. There are some small symbols like question marks and apostrophes interspersed throughout the lines.

9 naita zo

Handwritten cursive script, likely a form of shorthand or a specific dialect. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. The characters are highly stylized, often resembling loops, curves, and straight lines. Some characters include small diacritical marks such as dots, exclamation points, and question marks. The overall appearance is that of a personal or working manuscript.

juu yo

Handwritten notes in a cursive script, possibly representing a mathematical derivation or a sequence of operations. The text is arranged in several lines, with some characters resembling numbers and symbols. The script is fluid and somewhat illegible due to its cursive nature.
