Handwritten notes in a cursive script, possibly a shorthand or a specific dialect. The notes are organized into several lines, with some lines starting with a double underline. The characters are highly stylized and interconnected. Some lines include small numbers (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6) and symbols (circles, triangles) that may serve as markers or indicators. The overall appearance is that of a personal or working manuscript.

Handwritten musical notation consisting of approximately 15 staves of music. The notation is written in a cursive, handwritten style. It includes various rhythmic values such as eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and bar lines. Some notes are beamed together, and there are occasional accidentals. The overall structure appears to be a single melodic line.
